

TRAFFIC PSYCHOLOGY INTERNATIONAL

Traffic Psychology International (TPI) is a forum of traffic experts who cooperate with the goal to support road users in their individual traffic behaviour.

On 18-19.5.2015 the 9th meeting of these experts of TPI took place in Coimbra, Portugal which was attended by psychologists from Portugal, Germany, Austria, Spain, Finland, Great Britain, Belgium, Estonia, Russia federation, Hungary, the Czech Republic and Slovakia.

Participants of the 9th meeting of TPI support the effort to preserve Slovak traffic psychology as a whole with all its specializations and certifications.

Ana Marti-Belda Bertolin
Spain

Don DeVol
Germany

Ivika Born
Estonia

Ludo Kluppels
Belgium

Tatiana Kochetova
Russian federation

Zsuzanna Bencs
Hungary

Thomas Wagner
Germany

Cristine Chaloupka-Risser
Austria

Fátima Pereira Da Silva
Portugal

Jurgen Merz
Germany

Petr Zámečník
Czech republic

Matúš Šucha
Czech republic

Veronika Kurečková
Czech republic

Gunnar Meinhard
Estonia

David Crundall
Great Britain

Hana Ticha
Slovakia

Karol Kleinmann
Slovakia

Margit Herle
Austria

Sari Kukkamaa
Finland

Ralf Risser
Austria

In Coimbra, 18.5.2015